

DIED AMONG STRANGERS

Mysterious Taking Off of a Wealthy Mine Owner.

Hauled About the Streets in a Dying Condition, Seeking in Vain for Shelter—Remarkable Conduct of Railroad Officials.

WICHITA FALLS, Tex., Sept. 17.—Further facts pleased shore yesterday morning's dispatch in regard to the mysterious death of E. A. Morell, of Chicago, at the Biffle House, in this city, are as follows: Mr. Morell boarded a steamer on the westbound passenger at Fort Worth at 10 a. m., Sept. 13, 1884, and by 6 p. m. was suddenly ill. At 8 p. m. he was sent to the Biffle House, apparently in right. On route here he was suddenly and violently attacked with vomiting and fits of unconsciousness. He was put off in this condition at the place at 11 p. m. on the deck platform on shore. Dr. E. D. Evans was summoned, who soon arrived and tried in vain to have the stranger sheltered at every possible house in town, which was reached at the simple fearing cholera. Dr. Evans, however, experienced no difficulty in finding a house, and went to house with the stranger, and finally procured accommodations at the Biffle House. Mr. Morell died at 6 yesterday morning. The city under took the large expenses at $300 a. m., and a leading company took the deceased's papers, pass, watch and money.

Reports say that among the deceased's effects was a letter from Dr. John Evans, 100 Clark street, Boston, to Dr. Harry, Midway, Texas, his doctor, in which he said he had $10,000 in cash, $2,000 of shares in the Alaska Mining Company, Kokomo, Colorado, of which he was President, and some $30 in cash. Justice John W. Squier held a post mortem examination, and pronounced that poison was the cause of death. The matter will be further investigated.

PATIENT POISONED.

Evidence that His Physician Made a Serious Mistake.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—Dr. Felix O'Hare has been compelled to resign his position as a physician to a young man named Michael Lane, called upon Dr. O'Hare, and stated that he was not well, and asked for some medicine to make him sleep. William Seymour, Lane's roommate, who accompanied him to the doctor's office, says the doctor, who had been inside room and poured out the medicine by the light of a match, and gave it, with some pills, to him, telling me to give Lane one teaspoonful every two hours." The first dose he took, as soon as two pills were administered, as soon as two pills got Lane in his room. "Lane immediately became unconscious, and I got scared. I ran for the doctor, and when he came to the room he trembled all over, looked hard at poor Mike, grunted, and then, with a groan, rushed to the door, and poured nearly all of it out. Then he took to the basin, and, filling the bottle with water, stuck his finger in and tasted it. He took the bottle and pills away with him. Lane was beyond human aid, and died a few hours after the doctor's arrival." The Coroner's investigation revealed the fact that Lane had died from shock caused by acute acid poisoning in the stomach and intestines.

DON'T JOKE WITH MATRIMONY.

A Connecticut Farmer Did It, and Now He's In State Prison.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—James Abbot, thirty-five years old, a married man of Bridgeport, Connecticut, during the month of May answered a matrimonial advertisement which told him of a daily newspaper in this city. He told the paper which stated in her advertisement that she was a widow thirty-five years of age, that he was a prosperous farmer. On Saturday, June 28, he came to this city and had dinner with the widow, who gave her name as Maria Morris of No. 41. They became engaged. Two hours after the two met they were married by the pastor of St. Mark's Church, Abbot, who had misgivings under his name of Charles Abbot, remained with his new wife until the following Monday, when he returned to Bridgeport and joined his first wife as if nothing had happened. When his new wife learned that she had been duped by the man who had employed a deceiver and upbraided him, he fled. Abbot was tried in General Sessions yesterday and, on being found guilty, was sentenced to the State prison for five years.

BREACH OF PROMISE CASE.

An Attempt to Settle It With a Gun.

PLATTSBURGH, N. Y., Sept. 17.—Miss Jessie Trump, living three miles from here, a widow herself with a revolver, and when Mr. Floyd Woodwine, a well-known planter, rode by with his gun, she sprung forward and began shooting at him. At the first shot the horse jumped back, fearing he would carry off the victim, she deliberately shot the horse in the head, killing him instantly. The young man sprang from the saddle as the animal fell, and, as he did so, she shot his head. He made his escape, and the young woman was arrested. Miss Trump said that Woodwine had betrayed her under promise of marriage, and she had determined to shoot him. Woodwine was subsequently arrested, and he and Miss Trump were held for the Grand Jury.

THE HUSBAND SKIPPED.

When Told His Wife's Remains Were to Be Exhumed.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Sept. 17.—Maria Mcade, residing near Pendleton, Anderson County, died yesterday, and her body was buried the next day. She was a very heavy, stout woman, and her sudden death caused no little comment in the neighborhood, many believing that she had been murdered.

During the day, however, after her death the suspicion increased, the remains were exhumed, and an inquest was held. The stomach of the deceased was examined, and a trace of poison found, though decomposed, which was an unusual circumstance, to positively determine it. When the husband heard of the intention to exhume his wife's body, he packed his traps and left the neighborhood.

Woman and Her Money Missing. ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 17.—Mary Human, living near Sandoval, Marion County, Ill., was last night missing, and was found dead in her possession. It was discovered on yesterday that she had not arrived at her destination. She has been traced to this city, but the trace of her is lost. Four days ago she suspected. She was fifty-five years old.

Mother's

Friend!

A PRECIOUS BORN TO WOMAN.

WORDS OF PRAISE.

I now have an entire volume of verses to be confined to your Mother's Friend.

Coupled with this entirety I will add that during a long obstetrical practice, (forty-four years,) I have never known it to fall to produce a safe and quick delivery.

H. J. HOLMES, M. D.

A lady from one of the counties of Middle Georgia, who has been acting midwife for several years, has now a copy of the Mother's Friend you sent me, and I am delighted with it. In every instance where it has been used, its effects have been all that I could ask. I consider it a great blessing.

A gentleman writes: "My wife used your Mother's Friend at her fourth confinement, and I am now in full possession of it through its own singular妙处 of aiding in her former confinements, and recovered from its effects in much less time. She also recommended it to a lady friend who was about to be confined for the first time, and she says:

"I have never seen anyone pass through this great trial with so much ease and little suffering."

A QUICK AND EASY TIME.

A distinguished physician of Mississippi writes: Every one expecting to be confined should use the Mother's friend, for during a long obstetrical practice I have never known it to fail to produce a quiet and safe delivery.

This remedy is one about which we cannot make any statements, but it is a most wonderful medicine to be used after the first two or three months.

Happiness of Woman, mailed free, which
